Dear Mr. Smith:

Thank you for contacting the Chandra Law Firm LLC. We're sorry to hear what you're experiencing. We receive a high volume of inquiries daily and, as a small law firm, are not able to investigate or accept every case. We have reviewed the information you provided and determined, with regret, that this is not a matter our firm can handle. A number of factors may go into our decision including attorney availability and responsibilities to current clients, the investigation required, risk assessment, the jurisdiction, measurable economic damages, and whether our particular experiences are a good fit for the particular case.

We are honored that you reached out to us and wish you the best of luck in your efforts to secure the right representation.

Given our decision, no attorney-client relationship has been established between us, and you must not rely on anything said during our communications as legal advice. We have not fully investigated all of the facts and we express no opinion on the merits of your matter.

We hasten to give you our decision so you may retain other counsel if you wish to proceed. Note that you may have important deadlines approaching.

We wish you all the very best and hope you resolve the matter to your satisfaction.

Re: Cuyahoga County Public Works

Dear Paul:

We are sorry, but we are unable to accept your employment case. Unfortunately, we cannot take every case. Our decision does not necessarily mean that you do not have a case. The practice of law is an art, not a science, and we may be wrong.

Please understand that any claim that you might have is governed by a statute of limitations. If you do not preserve the statute of limitations by filing your case in the appropriate court, your claim will be barred. If it is your intention to proceed with your employment case, you should act immediately.

If you were referred to us by another law firm, that law firm will continue to represent you other active matters, if any.

Thank you for the opportunity to speak with you.

Respectfully,

Nilges Draher LLC

Re: Concluding representation

Dear Mr. Smith:

As we discussed this morning, based on our review of the case file received from Mr. Hux and our discussion with your workers'-compensation counsel, we will not be taking over representation in your federal matter, Smith v. Cuyahoga County, N.D. Ohio Case No. 1:21-cv-00160-JG.

Please allow this correspondence to confirm that, effective today, we are terminating our attorney-client relationship per ¶ 5.a of our retainer agreement. We will continue to maintain the confidentiality of our communications.

Mr. Hux remains your counsel of record in the federal case and you should continue to follow up with him regarding next steps. We have advised him that we will not be noticing our appearance.

We are sorry that we are unable to assist you. We wish you the best of luck in your efforts to return to work.

Very truly yours,

Ashlie Case Sletvold
